

"Ninfa Delle Acque", Plinio Nomellini

Autumn Workshop with Jeanne Bresciani, Director Isadora Duncan International Institute

Friday October 3, 7-9PM

Saturday October 4, 10AM-6PM

Dumbarton Church

3133 Dumbarton St. NW
Washington, DC 20007

"Art, Life and Love are forces tantamount to existence itself and present everywhere in Duncan's 'movement of the soul'. Inspiringly, by the end of her life Duncan writes that Love, greater than Art, and more enduring than Life, was the most powerful of the three.

Within the secure frame of the dance and via the lens of theater we will drive home to the heart center, where creativity rests, our 'motives unto motion'. There we will seek to strike a harmony of Art, Life and Love - blending form and substance, passion and pathos. And, perchance, we will accomplish 'miracles of love' within our own art and life like unto Isadora's desired legacy for us." - Jeanne Bresciani

Cost:

$150 for the entire workshop

$120 Saturday only

$50 Friday only

To register, contact cynthia@worddance.org.